

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 17, 2007

Parma Councilmen Sean Brennan (Ward Two), Nick Celebrezze (Ward Three) and Scott Tuma (Ward Eight) have become increasingly concerned about various crimes occurring in their neighborhoods, especially attempted child enticements and thefts from automobiles, homes and garages. In their continuing efforts to work with residents and the Parma Police Department, the three have planned a public safety informational meeting for residents. The Councilmen and representatives from the Parma Police Department will be present to impart information regarding child predators, how to bolster home and neighborhood safety, as well as how to work hand-in-hand with them in preventing and solving crime.

"I have become increasingly concerned about the number of attempted child enticements in our area," said Tuma. "We are trying everything we can think of to stem this activity and I am hopeful that by raising awareness our efforts will be strengthened."

"As residents we need to work together with City Hall and the police to send a message to criminals that they are not going to get away with it in Parma," Brennan said.

Members of the public are enthusiastically invited to attend the meeting, which will take place in Parma City Hall Council Chambers, located at 6611 Ridge Road on Thursday, October 4, at 7:00 pm.

Contact:

Councilman Sean Brennan 440-884-0489

Councilman Scott Tuma 440-842-8068